CNX Utility Network

The 3 main utilities

CNX builds platforms that are connected to the CNX-Network.

We offer you a range of 7 quintessential apps and the possibility of the network to expand beyond to 100 applications.

With more than 200.000 users at CNX-Network, everyone is primed to mining.

CoinX Miner App provides you the opportunity to mine CNX coins for free on this application, only for a limited amount of time and a limited amount of people.

Maximum security in house authenticator app.

CNX-Connect is an authenticator app manufactured and developed by CNX-Network. It enables users to navigate within the network apps, with ease and full security requiring only a one-time log in.

The ultimate non-custodial wallet app allowing users to gain full ownership of their private keys.

WalletX is a secure trading platform, enabling buying and selling crypto coins with low transaction and network fees; Access for to it is enabled through a waiting list, in order to encourage stable growth for coin value.

Additional Utilities

Contribute to a safer blockchain network

NodeX will connect your computer to the CNX network and support it through validation and relying transactions.

Free VPN Network for the CNX-Network investors

VPN allows you a safe and quick log in through the network while supporting OpenVPN, IPsec and IKEv2.

The ultimate CNX Advertiser/ Monetiser

AdManager will allow users to easily run advertisements & publish them on their own site and/ or application.

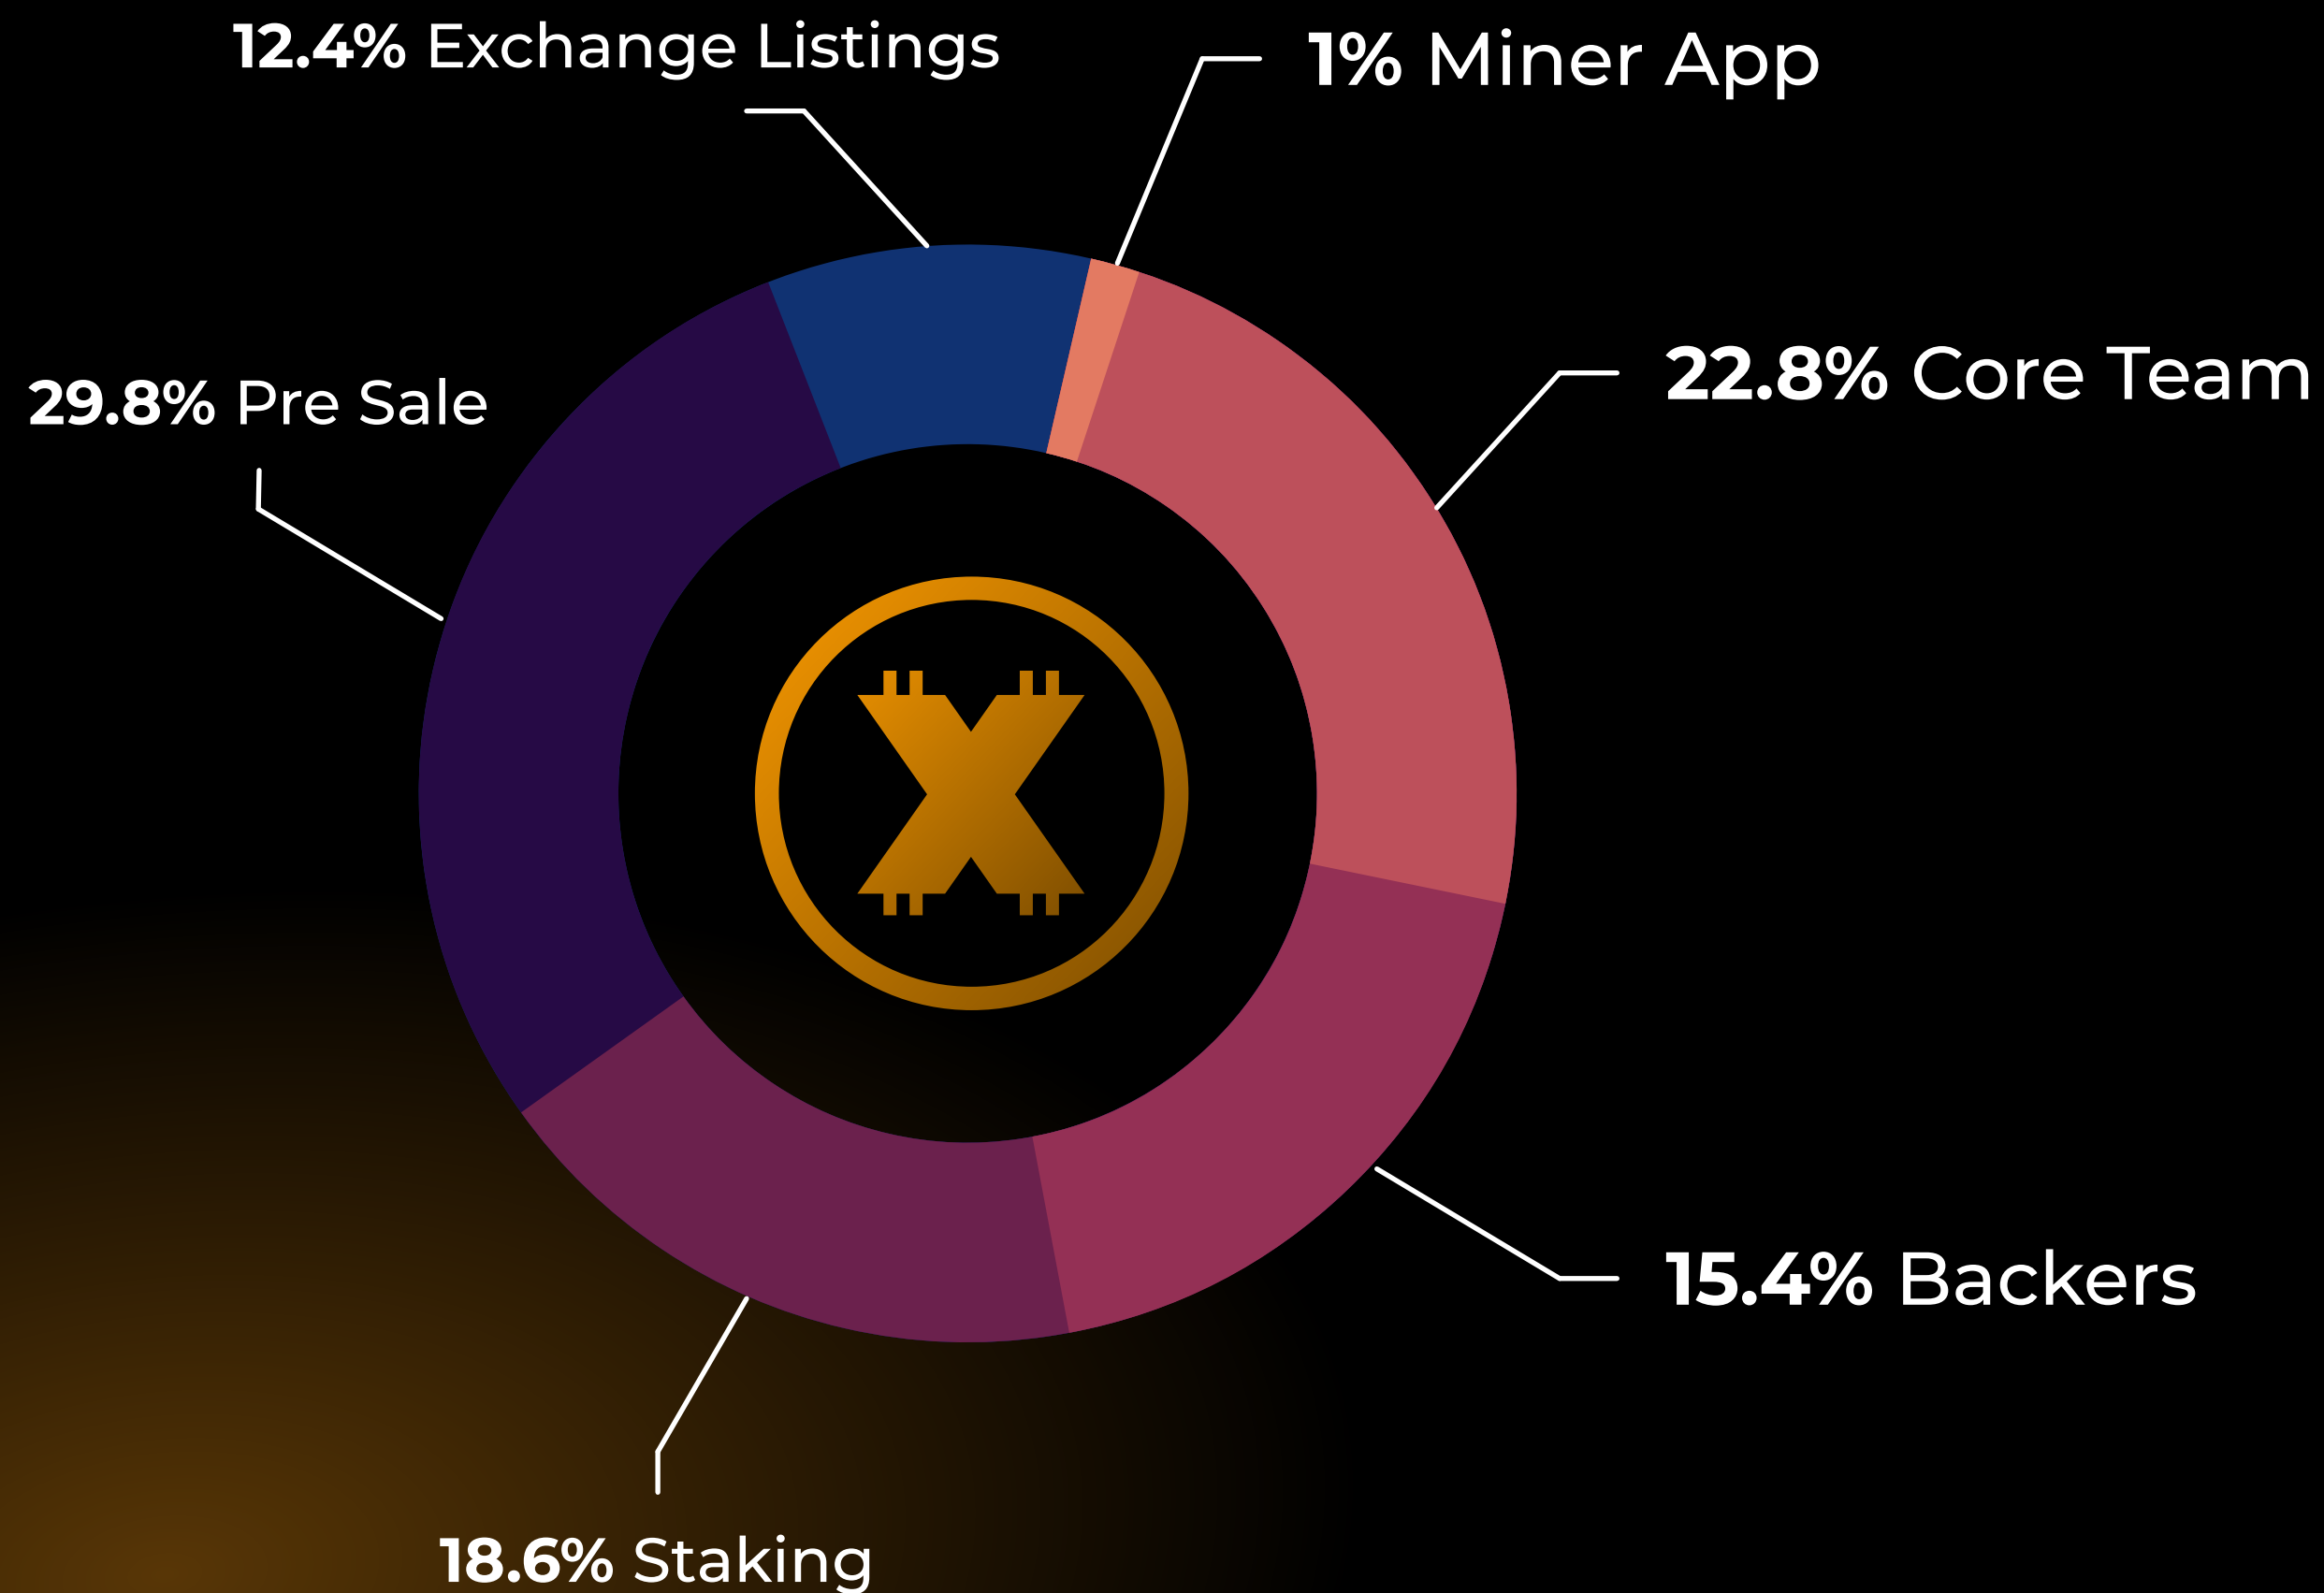

The new generation messenger app

MetaMessenger allows you to create worldwide groups and chats. Join free channels and tailor the subscription of paid channels to your needs. All the data is fully encrypted and safe within the network.

Token Distribution

CNX-Network will introduce its own cryptocurrency called CoinX

Presale Offering

CNX will offer 29.8% of the CoinX in a pre sale for the price of 0.008 USD. Besides getting the coin for a competitive market price, users are getting investment rewards that will empower the CNX-Utility network.

Staking Rewards

CoinX will provide staking rewards for all users that decide to hold the coin on WalletX.

Miner App

CNX presents the first utility application within the network, where highly valued contributors will be rewarded with an opportunity to mine for free during the promotional phase.

Equity Offering

Users will be able to buy CoinX tokens after the presale has ended. In this phase the CNX Coins will cost at least 0.04 usd.

CNX Community

CNX-Network aims to be a global community attracting people from all over the world that have an interest in cryptocurrency or connections via a universal platform. As such CNX-Network offers 2 main programs.

CNX Investor Program

CNX aims to provide a platform where user-generated value is a top priority.

We invite all companies and developers with great ideas related to the CNX-Network vision to apply for the CNX Investor program where we only introduce high-end products for our community. CNX-network will invest and support ideas that have potential for the community and will provide these projects an own domain within the network. (www.example.cnx)

Referral Program

Become active on the CNX-Community and earn CoinX at the same time during the promotion phase.

1. CoinX Miner App Referral Program

Earn free coins by joining our community. On every referral, the user will get 1 CNX as an invite bonus. Users can invite unlimited people to gain more coins during a mining session. This is only for a limited amount of time for a limited amount of people.
